I am a subscribing member of the British Transport Police Federation group insurance scheme for serving police officers and following my retirement from the Police service I would like to transfer to the scheme for retired officers. I have completed and attached the direct debit mandate required to enable collection of £33.96* (or £47.44 if continuing cover for my partner) per calendar month in respect of my membership of the scheme from my bank account and I understand that my scheme benefits will be applicable to my age, as detailed in the tables below.

Tick here if partner cover is to continue

Only applicable if subscribed for whilst a serving officer. Please read the reverse of this form for full details of partner cover.
